Summary: Tommy the squirrel wakes up to find that his home has been transported to New York City and is now the famous Rockefeller Center Christmas Tree. A stranger in a strange land, Tommy must figure out a way to conquer his fears and explore his new world--or stay hidden away forever. And thus begins the adventures of... The Most Well-Traveled Squirrel in the Whole Wide World!

Quotes: "Excellent illustrations and rhyme scheme."

"Many jumping off points and just the right amount of big words -- great learning tools for the children."

"The story really sparked the student's interests of where Tommy should explore in the next book."

Meet the Team:

Blaze Kelly Coyle (Writer) is president and CEO of Silver Phoenix Entertainment. Born in Philadelphia and raised in Minotola, Blaze is the quintessential Renaissance woman with an extensive résumé spanning television, film, theater, radio, voiceover, music, commercial, literary, reporting, teaching and modeling work. She is the co-writer of the educational video series The Eco Files, which is set to film in Summer 2012 and also co-wrote the off-broadway musical O Night Divine. A former substitute teacher in the Vineland Public School District, Blaze hopes to inspire all kids to use their gifts and pursue what makes them happy!

Andrew Romano (Writer) was born and raised outside Philadelphia. When he was nine, unlike most children his age he asked Santa for a typewriter. Well, Santa came through--Andrew was a good boy that year--and thus began his love for writing and rhyming. Andrew now resides outside NYC, where he enjoys observing the hustle and bustle of people and places all around him, and bringing that to children in an entertaining and educational way. He hopes his writing inspires children and adults alike to explore the world around them and see the beauty in it everywhere. Andrew is also a professional voice-over actor and runs a boutique wealth management practice.

Sanja Nenić (Illustrator) is a very talented twenty-year-old from Bosnia, Europe. She grew up in the small town of Bijeljina and is currently a law student at the University of Novi Sad. At a young age, Sanja grew an immense affection towards drawing and today it has become one of her life's passions.
